

Terms of Use

YASURAGI is a house in the countryside between mountains and rice fields. YASURAGI is located in an environment rich in nature, but there are also houses nearby. Please understand the characteristics of YASURAGI and abide by the following rules.

Please fill out the guest list when you check in. Please fill in your passport number if you are from overseas.

Please fill in the No. of the house as well.

If you do not arrive by 24:00 on the day of your stay, you will be considered to have cancelled your reservation (cancellation fee: 100% of the room charge).

Please understand the characteristics of the hotel and observe the following rules. Smoking is not permitted indoors. Please smoke outside. Please do not leave any litter in the room.

Please refrain from using the room service.

Please bring your own loungewear or use our rental pajamas.

Please be quiet and do not make noise at night. Outdoor activities, such as in the garden, are allowed until 21:00. Please spend a relaxing time in your room after that.

Please be careful with fire. If you have any fire problems with the wood stove, bonfire, or BBQ, please contact the owner immediately.

Please understand that you may encounter insects and animals in the natural surroundings. Please understand this.

Please take care of your belongings, cash and valuables at your own risk.

Please be careful with fire.

Please do not take any artwork or equipment home with you.

Please be aware that you may be charged for any damage to property caused by rough handling.

Please understand that you are responsible for any items, cash, or valuables that you bring with you.

Please be aware that you will be charged for your own personal belongings.